B. CEO Compensation and Performance. The Committee shall annually review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and set the CEO's compensation based on this evaluation. In determining any long-term incentive component of CEO compensation, the Committee may consider such factors as it deems relevant and material, including but not limited to such factors as the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar awards to CEOs at comparable companies, and the awards given to the CEO in past years.

The Committee shall also annually approve, and certify the results of, the performance criteria applicable to incentive awards (or portions thereof) for any of the Subject Employees that are intended to comply with the requirements of Section 162(m).

D. Material Terms of Agreements. The Committee shall review and approve, prior to implementation, the material terms of all employment agreements, severance arrangements, and change in control agreements/provisions covering any of the Subject Employees.

E. Cash and Equity-Based Compensation Plans. The Committee shall administer and make recommendations to the Board (to the extent subject to Board approval) with respect to the Company's Cash Plans and Equity Plans. Except for grants to non-employee directors (the amount and terms of which are determined by the Board in its sole discretion, after considering any recommendation of the Committee), the Committee shall have authority in accordance with the terms of the Equity Plans to approve the selection of persons to whom awards are granted under the Equity Plans and to establish the terms and conditions thereof.

F. Approval and Oversight of Compensation-Related Policies and Processes. The Committee shall approve such other policies and procedures as it deems necessary and appropriate to facilitate the Company's compliance with the Governing Rules related to executive and director compensation, including any required approvals and advisory votes by shareholders. The Committee shall request and review reports from management as necessary to oversee compliance with such policies and procedures.

G. Proxy Disclosures. The Committee shall also annually review and discuss with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis ("CD&A") required by the SEC Rules to be included in the Company's proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders. Based on such review and discussion, the Committee shall indicate to the Board whether it recommends the inclusion of the CD&A in such proxy statement. The Committee shall further authorize and adopt the disclosure required by the SEC Rules to be made by the Committee under the caption "Compensation Committee Report" in such proxy statement.

H. Non-Employee Director Compensation. The Committee shall annually review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to non-employee director compensation.

I. Other Responsibilities. The Committee shall discharge any other duty or responsibility assigned to it by the Board. The Committee shall perform such additional duties as may be necessary to fulfill any other requirements imposed on the Committee by the Governing Rules as in effect from time to time, and shall consider such other processes and governance matters as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate in its discretion.
